ATTACHMENT TO CRIMINAL COMPLAINT:

RE: Ovidio ORDONEZ-Maldonado

CONTINUATION:

The subjects were subsequently transported to the Rio Grande Valley/Central Processing Center to be processed accordingly.

On December 11, 2019, Homeland Security Investigations Special Agents (HSI) interviewed ORDONEZ-Maldonado upon suspicion that his claim to be the child's father was false. At that time, ORDONEZ-Maldonado admitted that he was not the real father of the child and had produced a fraudulent document to claim relation to the child. Prior to being interviewed, ORDONEZ-Maldonado was read his Miranda Rights and chose to waive them.

ORDONEZ-Maldonado stated that, in fact, he is not the father of the child and was transporting the child in order to be allowed to remain in the United States. ORDONEZ-Maldonado stated he left Guatemala and came to the United States for a better life and planned to stay with a friend in Florida. ORDONEZ-Maldonado implied he knew the child was illegally in the United States and intended to further the juvenile's illegal entry and presence in the United States.

The female juvenile was identified as A.G.F.G.
